COURT HOUSE CROWDED TO HEAR BECKHAM

Declares League Greatest War
Preventative Ever Created
By Man

Senator J. C. W. Beckham addressed an audience here Tuesday afternoon that completely filled the court house and left many standing on the outside. After referring his hearers to the many unfilled promises of Gov. Morrow and his assistants and asking if the people are willing to believe their campaign promises this fall, the speaker launched into a discussion of the League of Nations declaring it the greatest method for preventing war ever invented by the mind of man. He showed in a clear and distinct manner that all the criticism of the League is unjust.

He compared the record of the two presidential candidates and asked what great reform or measure Senator Harding has ever advocated. He showed that Gov. Cox has always been a progressive and has initiated many reforms.

In discussing the platforms of the two parties he said there was no comparison and asked any who do not have time to read both to read the Republican platform. He said they would ask no further reason for voting the Democratic ticket.

He told of the many great measures passed by the Democrats in the past seven and a half years and devoted considerable time to telling of the great good the Federal Reserve act has done in preventing panics and bank failures.

He discussed other important issues of the campaign but owing to a lack of time we cannot attempt to do the speech justice, but suffice it to say it was convincing all the way through and contained nothing of the bombast of Republican campaign oratory.

ACCIDENT PROVES FATAL

Friends here have received word of the death of Mr. John H. Taylor, near Decatur, Ala. Mr. Taylor was employed by the Bond Tie Co., and at the time of the accident was riding on a truck load of ties on a dummy railway. At a weak point in the road the truck tilted to one side throwing him off and piling the ties upon him. His skull was badly fractured and he was otherwise injured. Friends took him nine miles in a launch to a surgeon but death soon occurred.

Mr. Taylor was 30 years, one month and 20 days of age and was well known here, having been in the employ of Mr. Frank Black for nearly five years.

The remains arrived at Beaver Dam Sunday and was buried at Bethel Sunday afternoon in the presence of a large congregation.

The body arrived at Beaver of a large congregation. Rev. M. G. Snell preached the funeral.

TRAVELLING MEN FAV- OR GOVERNOR COX

Ashland, Ky., Oct. 21.—Traveling men of Eastern Kentucky met here and formed a Cox Commercial Traveler's Club. E. H. Phipps was elected Chairman, W. H. Caudill, Secretary and Treasurer. The Club will back the candidacy of Cox and Roosevelt, Senator J. C. W. Beckham and W. J. Fields for Ninth District Congressman. The Club passed resolutions scorning scurrilous Republican literature attempting to mislead traveling salesmen, which literature they stated has been proven false to their satisfaction.

MRS. BUNGER DEAD

Mrs. Mary Jane Bunker, widow of Geo. W. Bunker, died at the residence of Mr. J. E. Dawson, last Monday afternoon. The deceased who was in her 85 year had been a member of the Baptist church for many years. Her remains were interred in Oakwood Cemetery yesterday by the side of her husband and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Sandefur, of near Beaver Dam, are the proud parents of a 7 lb. girl, Dorothy Lee. Mother and child doing fine. Mr. and Mrs. John Sandefur and Mr. and Mrs. James Ralph are the delighted grandparents.

ONE CHANCE FOR ETERNAL PEACE

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 21.—"I am not here because I am an orator, but because I believe the League of Nations is the greatest issue of our time. I know what war is. I have seen men mangled from shells lying out five days without medical attention. I want to see war put to an end, and the League of Nations is the best way of getting peace," said Col. Charles Whittlesey, who became famous as "Go-to-Hell" Whittlesey, commander of the "Lost Battalion" in the Argonne Forest, speaking to 400 employees of the Kentucky & Indiana Terminal railroad at the shops Wednesday afternoon.

"There are just four things in the covenant of the League of Nations, each one of which prevents war," continued Col. Whittlesey. "The first is that the nations shall reduce their armaments. In the second place, compulsory arbitration, to which all subjects of dispute are referred. The third, every member of the league shall exert economic pressure upon any nation threatening to start a war. The fourth point, all treaties are open treaties. They are to be filed and recorded by the secretary of the League of Nations where anyone can see them.

"We know that the League of Nations is the only league of that nature we are ever going to get. America has to make up its mind now, or the chance for eternal peace is gone forever."

"There are Republicans who tell us that Article X threatens to bring us into war. This is the article whereby the members of the league undertake to respect and preserve, as against external aggression, the territorial integrity and existing political independence of all members of the league. This is false, because only by an act of Congress can this country go to war. But because the Republicans pick a flaw with this one article they are willing to scrap the whole covenant. The soldiers who fought 'over there' know that they fought for their ideals. And these ideals mean permanent peace."

BEAVER DAM VS. CENTRAL CITY

Beaver Dam came over Sunday and gave our home boys a fight for their victory of eight to three. It was an ideal day and a good crowd was at the grounds to see the game. A number of Beaver Dam and Hartford citizens came over to back up the effort of the Ohio, county players.

It was a hard-fought game from start to finish, and the spectators got the worth of their money. The feature of the game for the visitors was the fielding of Rogers, who played center. The young man showed the training of an athlete, and did some fancy work in the field. The honors of the home boys went to Johnson and Russell, both for batting and fielding. Owen showed real class in pitching for the visitors.

MRS. BELKNAP LEAVES

TAFT'S PEACE LEAGUE

Writes Him That His Inconsistency in Supporting Harding

In Now Travesty

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 22.—Mrs. Julia R. Belknap, widow of William R. Belknap, former president of the Belknap Hardware and Manufacturing Company, has written William Howard Taft her resignation from the League to Enforce Peace.

She states that his 'inconsistency' in remaining president of this league, which is necessarily bound up in the success of the League of Nations, while supporting Senator Harding, nation's league enemy, is a travesty.

Mrs. Belknap was a sister-in-law of the late Morris B. Belknap, at one time Republican candidate for Governor of Kentucky.

Her letter follows:

"As a member of the League to Enforce Peace I have watched and waited with growing concern for evidence that the league was now, of all times, justifying its existence. I have expected and was prepared for an appeal for funds to be used in promulgating the truth about the League of Nations. As none has come I have sent what I had to give to the organization which publicly made such an appeal.

"Now, in view of Mr. Harding's Des Moines speech and of your announced support of him as a Presidential candidate, I cannot longer remain silent. May I be pardoned for saying that no one should, to my thinking, be at the same time a supporter of the avowed enemy of the League of Nations and an official of the League to Enforce Peace, inasmuch as the League to Enforce Peace inevitably is involved. In the action of its president and its influence thus thrown against the League of Nations I feel that membership in the League to Enforce Peace has become a travesty. I am, therefore, submitting my resignation to the league through the secretary.

"I beg to remain, Mr. President, with deep sorrow and abiding disappointment,

"Yours truly,
"JULIA R. BELKNAP."

Mrs. W. C. Blankenship returned Saturday from Louisville, where she recently underwent an operation for tumor of the throat. She is getting along nicely and feels no ill effects from the operation except that she cannot yet use her arm as well as before.

Mrs. James Glenn who has been employed at Louisville for some months is at home for several days.

G. O. P. BLAMED FOR

HIGH SUGAR PRICES

Congressman Kincheloe Tells Why Sugar Soared to

30 Cents a Pound

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 21.—In a speech made today before a large crowd of Henderson County voters, Congressman David H. Kincheloe explained how the dilly-dallying of President Wilson's recommendation to the Republican Congress was responsible for thirty cents sugar in this country. Had the Congress accepted promptly sugar would have sold as cheaply as it did a year before, and almost a billion dollars would have been saved American purchasers.

In part Congressman Kincheloe explained the situation as follows:

"The Lever Food Control Act which was passed by a Democratic Congress during the war under which the sugar corporation operated, obtained a provision ending the existence of the corporation when the armistice was signed.

"This sugar corporation bought the Cuban sugar crop of 1918 which was sold to American people at 11 and 12 cents per pound. The president in a message to the Republican Congress on the 8th of August 1919, called attention to the fact that the sugar corporation had ceased to function and urged this Republican Congress to pass an act immediately extending the powers of this sugar corporation. Hearings were conducted before a committee of the Senate having charge of this legislation and members of the original sugar corporation appeared before this committee and testified that they had no further powers under the original act by reason of the cessation of the war. Notwithstanding these representations by the President in his message and the members of the sugar corporation, the Senate failed to pass the law extending the life of this corporation until December 1, 1919. The Republican House did not pass it until December 16, 1919, and the House added amendments to the Senate bill which threw it into conference. The conference report was not adopted until the 28th day of December 1919, and the bill did not become a law until December 31, 1919.

Many weeks before that all of the Cuban sugar crop had been sold to England and other countries and therefore the act was of no service.

If the Republican Congress had passed the act immediately after the president had called its attention to the act immediately after the President had called its attention to the fact in his special message, the sugar corporation would have immediately bought the Cuban Sugar

crop at the same price it paid for it in 1918, and therefore the American people would have purchased sugar as cheaply in 1920 as they did in 1919."

According to reports the Democratic women of the county are taking a great interest in the campaign for The League of Nations and World Peace. It was feared at first that many women who do not favor suffrage would refuse to vote, but realizing the importance of a vote this fall when such a great principle is at stake and knowing that every negro woman in the county and state will go to the polls, even the most timid ladies say they are not willing to remain at home and let the colored race defeat Cox and the League.

Miss Sue Yelser, the Democratic "Women's Chairman is proving an enthusiastic worker and is obtaining results. The party was very fortunate in securing her services.

Mrs. J. S. Glenn has delivered three addresses in the interest of the ticket, one at Centertown, one at Kronos and the other at Heflin. Splendid audiences were present and she delivered logical and interesting addresses. She will speak at Narrows, Thursday afternoon at 2:30 and at Dundee Thursday night at 7 o'clock.

"I also earnestly urge my friends in Kentucky and everywhere else to vote for Cox and Roosevelt.

Mrs. Woodbury and Senator Harris Drive Hard Licks

For League

In addresses delivered Saturday afternoon to an audience that filled the Ohio County court house, Mrs. John L. Woodbury, of Louisville, and Senator Charles Harris, of Versailles, delivered some telling blows against the opponents of Cox and the League.

Mrs. Woodbury spoke first and among her opening statements said that women should not be bound by party ties but should vote for the party and candidates that represent the principles for which they stand.

She said that after thorough study she had found that the Democratic party best represented her views and is now advocating the principles for which she stands. She told of the wonderful achievements of the Democratic party under the leadership of Woodrow Wilson and then in answer to the Republican charges of extravagance pointed to the Republican record during the Spanish-American war; how through lack of policy on the part of the Republican administration, thousands laid in camps and died of disease and from unwholesome food.

Hon. Glover Cary, Centertown, Friday night Oct. 29, 7:00

In referring to erroneous and ridiculous statements made by Gov. Morrow regarding the League he asked if the people of Kentucky are willing to listen to any more of Morrow's balderdash. He said Morrow had promised to lower taxes and reduce the number of officers and that instead taxes are now higher than ever and there are two more offices than before Morrow's inauguration. He also called attention to the fact that under Morrow most of the state institutions now have Superintendents from other states.

Gov. Harris is an able speaker and calls spade a spade. He was applauded frequently.

The Morgantown brass band furnished music for the occasion.

The same speakers addressed a large audience at Rockport, Saturday night. The opera house was filled and many were turned away because of lack of room.

WOMEN IN BOTH PARTIES AGREE

While Opposed In Political Campaign They Are United
On Kentucky School Problems

Mrs. John W. Langley, Chairman of the Women's Division Republican Campaign Committee, gave your correspondents the following interview concerning the new school laws and the coming election of County Boards of Education in November:

"To my mind the greatest forward step that has been taken in the direction of a higher standard of education was the ratification of the amendment to the Federal Constitution of placing the power in the hands of women, and for the reason that her influence is essential. It is considerably modified than that of the men in the home life of the country which is the formation period of their character and the most enduring part of it.

"This is not because women realize more fully than men do the vital importance to the future of the nation of a good clean school system, but because, as the history of civilization shows us beginning to the present, the mother's influence is greater than that of the father over the education of their household. It therefore follows as a matter of course that this added power to aid in advancing her ideals will be exercised to the maximum by her."

"No one, I sincerely believe, that better education will affect the political alignment of the people. It will only better equip them for deciding how to interpret and voice their views on any political question. They will continue in the future as they have done in the past to entertain divergent views as to what character of legislation and of administration best calculated to advance the interests of the state and the nation. The point I wish to make is that the question of education should be exalted above political questions and entirely divorced from them."

Mrs. John W. Langley.

"We must secure a deeper interest on the part of all of our people in this greatest of all movements, for after all has been said and done, we can not fully prepare the citizens of today for the duties and responsibilities of citizenship that they might have otherwise unless we succeed in getting public sentiment crystallized behind the strong school movements."

"I believe this is now being accomplished by the recent legislation which has been put into operation, and that the good results of these laws will continue to grow as time passes on."

"I sincerely believe that the good women of our state are going to put their whole hearts, their ideals, and their strength into this movement and use the ballot accordingly. If they do this success is certain and we will be happier, brighter and better Kentucky."

When your correspondent asked Mrs. Samuel M. Wilson, committeewoman on the Democratic State Campaign Committee, for her views on the recent school laws, which will become effective next November, she said:

"It gives me peculiar pleasure to express my sense of gratitude for this newest evidence of Kentucky's educational awakening, as expressed in the new school laws passed by the last session of the Legislature. We have toiled and worked for so long to take our schools out of politics and to raise the salary of our teachers, that these new laws creating a non-partisan County Board of Education and fixing a minimum salary for teachers give cause for pride and thanksgiving. There is every reason to hope that they will prove a decided step in the right direction. There is no recent step forward, taken by Kentucky, that can compare in far-reaching importance with the laws passed to improve our educational system. All honor to our Democratic and Republican legislators who passed these laws."

The newly enfranchised women of Kentucky can be of useful service to our state by electing to our County Boards of Education the highest type of men and women available. Men and women proof against partisan temptation, who can be depended on to select county superintendents worthy to be intrusted with the mental training of the future citizens of our state. It has taken Kentucky a long time to come to a full realization of the discreditable position she has occupied in the best and nothing but the best for the children of Kentucky, and with a conscientious determination to reward our teachers in a way commensurate, at least in some degree (they could not be adequately compensated), with the great work they are doing for our future men and women there is every reason to believe that Kentucky will assume and maintain a position worthy of her in matters educational."

Mrs. Christine Bradley South, the assistant secretary of the Republican National Committee, gave the following statement for publication concerning the new County School Administration Law:

"The seriousness of the crisis through which the world is passing emphasizes the importance of education as the hope of democracy. To so far as is humanly possible, there must be equality of opportunity for education for all the children—rich and poor, native born and foreign born, city and country, white and black, until ignorance everywhere is supplanted by disciplined information. Our children are worthy of better teachers; our teachers are worthy of better pay; democratic education is entitled to the loyal support of all."

"Our schools must be forever divorced from politics. The new County School Administration Law, when properly appreciated and properly applied, will accomplish this end. The best men and women in each county, regardless of political affiliation, should be selected for membership on the County School Board. To secure the right of suffrage for women, we have insisted always and everywhere that woman was inclined to feel a more jealous regard for the rights of childhood than man. I know of no more certain way for woman to justify the new privilege and the new responsibility that have come to her than by using her voice and her vote in securing better educational opportunities for the children of Kentucky, and by aiding in the election of county boards that will think in terms of the rights of children rather than in the interest of any party."

HIS HEART WAS RIGHT

An uneducated but honest county superintendent, who lives far back in the hills of Kentucky, recently made the following very unusual and thoroughly pointed speech to a group of people who were interested in the schools:

"Men, when you come to vote for the members of this here new County Board of Education, put more Christianity and less politics into your vote. 'You're my friends; but think of what your vote means to the children.'

"There's a Reason"

BIG MEN ENDORSE NEW SCHOOL LAW

Democratic Senator and Republican Leader In Accord
On Welfare of Children

Senator J. C. W. Beckman was seen some time ago by your staff representative who asked the Senator for his views upon the new County School Administration Law. The Senator's very hopeful statement is given in full below:

"While I have not had a chance to read the entire school law passed by the last session of the Legislature, I have been informed of its general provisions and am very hopeful that it will accomplish great good for our county schools and enable them to make greater progress than ever."

"It is hardly necessary for me to say how deeply interested I am in the school work in our State, for during the time I was a member of the Legislature, and Governor, I always gave especial consideration to the progress and development of our school system. It is a great work. The rural schools have not, of course, had the advantages of the city schools, and I earnestly hope that the new system adopted under this law may prove satisfactory and successful in every way."

"I understand that under the new law County Boards of Education are to be elected in the state on November 2nd, and I trust that the people of every county will realize the great importance of this election and see to it that the best persons possible to secure for that work shall be elected."

"The success of the law will depend to a very considerable extent upon the character and intelligence of those who make up these county boards."

"There is no more important work in our State than the improvement and development of our schools, and especially the rural schools. I was for three years a teacher in the common schools in this State, and I have realized that good schools for all of the children are the solid foundation stones upon which a republic like ours is erected. Good schools mean an educated public which will think sanely, act sanely and vote sanely at all times and on all questions. That every child, everywhere may be educated, good schools must exist in our cities, in our small towns and in our most remote rural districts."

"Many of our large cities and towns have developed strong school systems.

which are giving splendid service. A few of the rural districts in Kentucky have done the same thing for their children, but many counties have been backward in giving the country child a real opportunity for a first-class education because of laws which have permitted the schools to be pulled-into local politics.

"It is indeed fortunate that both of the political parties in Kentucky at the last session of the Legislature laid aside all party feeling, got together and passed a group of strong school laws that will remake the rural schools. These new school laws will practically take the County Boards of Education and the County Superintendent out of politics and keep them out of politics if the voters will think of the children when they go to the polls in November."

"Every right thinking man and woman should vote for strong men for the new County Boards of Education. These right thinking people should also urge others to do likewise that every small school shall be developed to serve the children, and in serving the children make the State what it should be in the future."

DON'T SKIMP ON SCHOOLS

Every magazine and newspaper in the land is printing editorials concerning the schools of the nation. The Youth's Companion has the following to say concerning the schools in America:

"The schools of America were founded and maintained by sacrifice; only so can they be preserved. The teacher must be convinced of the value and dignity of his service that he will not lightly abandon it for some occupation that offers more ease or excitement or money. And on the other hand the public must stop being negligently. It must tax itself more heavily for schools than it has been in the habit of doing, and it must pay salaries that do not degrade the teacher in the eye of the community. Wherever else a county must skimp, let it not skimp on its schools."

THE NEW DAVID AND GOLIATH

REVERE MEMORY OF MACEO

Negro Patriot Said to Hold the Chief Place in the Hearts of Cuban Maceos.

Graves in the cemetery of Santiago de Cuba are family affairs, built of cement and six or eight "stories" deep, so that the coffins are set one above the other, as their time comes, in perfect chronological order, writes Harry A. Franck in the Century.

Over the top, commonly a bare three or four feet above the grass, is laid a huge stone slab, preferably of marble, with immense brass or nickel rings at each corner by which to lift it, and space on its top for a poetic epitaph to each succeeding occupant. As in all Spanish countries, the tombs of all but the wealthiest inmates are rented for a term of years, at the end of which time, if the descendants fail to renew the contract, the bodies are tossed into common graveyard, to make room for those of greener memory.

Marti, the Cuban "Father of Liberty," is buried here, and Estrada Palma, promoted from humble pedagogue in an American school to first president of Cuba. But neither holds the chief place in the heart of the Cuban masses. That is reserved for Maceo, the negro general killed just before the dawn of independence during a foolhardy scouting expedition in the woods of Cuchanal, in company with a bare half-dozen soldiers.

Fordson

TRADE MARK

Farm Tractor

There are many Tractors clamoring for the patronage of the farmer. The very air is charged with the noise of claims. One would think that all the farmer had to do was to buy a Tractor and he would enter into the Millennium.

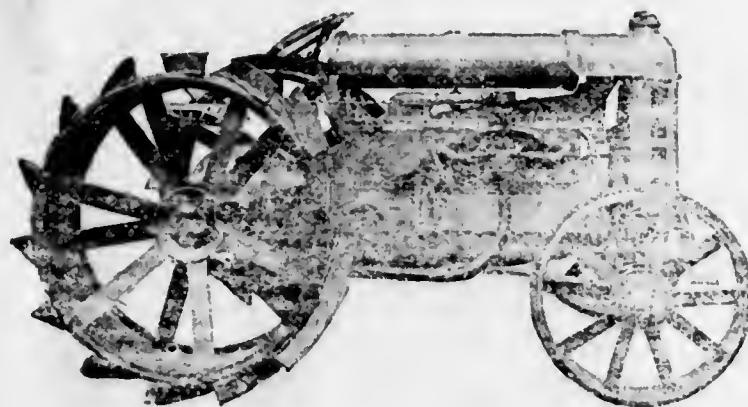

Well, consider this fact—there are a great many different makes of Tractors. Tractors have been on the American market for twenty years. In that time some three hundred thousand Tractors have been sold to the farmers in the United States. The Fordson Tractor has only been on the market two years, and in that time more than one hundred thousand Fordson Tractors have been sold to the farmers of the United States.

Two and two make four. Two and two always will make four. If the Fordson Tractor had not delivered more good work, more satisfactory work, more economical work, than any other farm Tractor, it would not have sold in the ratio of anywhere from five and more to one. "The proof of the pudding is in the eating." The proof of the superior merits of the Fordson Tractor is in its larger sale and use.

The Fordson Tractor then asks you to buy it because of what it has done for your neighbors. It asks you to buy it on its merits. It asks you to buy it, Mr. Farmer, because you have use for it every day in the year. All the uses for the Fordson Tractor have not yet been uncovered because new places where machine power can take the place of human power, where machine power can supplant horse and mule-power, are being found every week, and wherever such discovery occurs, the Fordson Tractor will fill the bill more satisfactorily than any other form of power.

The Fordson is simple in design, and it is very strongly made of the highest quality of iron and steel. It is the product of the greatest mechanical genius the world has ever known, and it is most economical in first cost and after expense. The Fordson Tractor on your farm will increase the value of every foot of ground in that farm. It will put more dollars and cents into every hour you put into the farm.

Now why not have a Fordson right away? Take up the subject with us. Come in and get the details, and all the particulars. It is only a matter of time until you buy a farm Tractor—that is sure. So don't put it off when it means money to you to act promptly.

A CHALLENGE

Whereas, the leading issue of the campaign is The League of Nations, and as it is the duty and privilege of every voter to read the full text of this Covenant and the Hartford Herald has published the entire text while the Hartford Republican, following the example of most other Republican newspapers of the nation, has published only a very small portion of this document, and as paragraphs taken here and there from any document tend to confuse rather than instruct readers, we hereby challenge the Hartford Republican to publish the entire text of the Covenant of the League of Nations in its next issue.

AN ABSURDITY

The Hartford Republican of last week contained the following:

Among other things in Wilson's Covenant of the League of Nations which we are asked to approve and ratify, is the following: "Members of the League, will instruct the League with the general supervision over the execution of agreements with regard to the traffic in women and children, and the traffic in opium and other dangerous drugs."

It then went on to criticize this clause intimating that the League authorizes traffic in women and children as legal. Of all the infamous assertions yet made regarding the League, this is the most ridiculous. This clause was inserted in the League at the request of a committee composed of some of the leading ladies of the civilized countries of the world. And places this traffic under the supervision of the League for the sole purpose of eradicating this evil. Following is the resolution presented by the ladies to the Peace Commissioners at one of their sessions in Paris:

"Whereas, certain countries still maintain laws and customs which practically keep their women in a state of slavery, that they decide the fate of children by promising them in marriage at an early age, by tolerating either the openly avowed or privately arranged sale of women:

"Whereas, the countries represented at the Peace Conference must recognize not only the rights of nations, but also of individual citizens:

"Whereas, the special measures taken under the pretext of public safety with regard to women who are or are suspected of being prostitutes achieve the degradation of human morals:

"Resolved, First, to suppress the sale of women and children; second, to respect and apply the principles of woman's liberty to dispose of herself in marriage; third, to suppress the traffic in women, girls and children of both sexes, and its corollary of licensed disreputable houses."

The clause quoted by the Republican is one of the best reasons for voting for the League.

The anonymous literature campaign of the Republican politicians has indeed reached a high point.

The teachers of Ohio County have each received a leaflet containing the statement that Senator Beckham is opposed to the new law providing for the raise in teacher's salaries. When this matter was brought to Senator Beckham's attention, he said: "The entire thing is a falsehood. I have never mentioned this law in my addresses during the campaign. I will say further that the men who are publishing and causing this leaflet to be distributed are wilful and malicious liars, and they know they are when they are taking such action."

The Hartford Republican criticizes us for calling attention to the FACT that the Republican Handbook does not commend the glorious achievements of the American Army in France. Now, the platform in speaking of soldier relief mentions something about glory and patriotism but does NOT mention a single achievement of the American Army nor would one know from reading this platform or handbook whether our soldiers were VICTORIOUS or otherwise.

We dislike to continue an argument of such small portent as that over the size of the audiences at political meetings here and Beaver Dam, but the Hartford Republican in its first editorial said one of the two reputable Democrats estimated the number at the Morrow speaking as 4000. Now, neither of these were remember giving a number so large as this, but say they did make some statement in regard to the number.

The Republican was misinformed when it said both the Beaver Dam and the Hartford schools dismissed for the Democratic speaking at Beaver Dam. The Hartford school did not dismiss and the Beaver Dam school dismissed at its usual time which was however in time for many of the students to see Gov. Cox.

"I want you to know that I believe in equality before the law. That's one of the guarantees of the American constitution. You can not give one right to a white man and deny the same right to a black man." (Senator Harding, at Oklahoma City, Okla., Oct. 9, 1920.)

A vote for Cox is a vote for the League of Nations. A vote for Harding is a vote for no one knows what.

Before voting, see the display of candidates in the Herald windows and make your choice accordingly.

The Republicans never mention Article 21 of the Covenant of the League of Nations.

Policewomen Now Established. Policewomen have become an established factor of municipal law enforcement in recent years, but motorcycle policewomen still are a novelty. London now has a squad of them, however, and they are doing very effective work, says the Popular Mechanics Magazine. The women have been members of the police force for some time, but have only recently acquired their machines.

His Choice. The ex-gob, now the father of triplets, proudly displayed his offspring to his bushy buddy. "What do you think of them?" he chortled. "Well," replied his buddy doubtfully, "if I was you I think I'd keep that one there."—The American Legion Weekly.

Seals Migrate Early. The protective measure adopted by the government for the benefit of the seals in American waters has been entirely successful, as indicated by the great number of animals seen to be migrating to the Arctic seas. The migration was three weeks earlier than usual, and an unusually large number of animals were noted on their way to the north.

THE COVENANT OF THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS

We have so many requests for a copy of the Covenant of the League of Nations that below we give the terms of the present Treaty, declared in full as submitted to the U. S. or of the Council shall require the Senate for ratification July 10, 1919: The High Contracting Parties, in order to promote international cooperation and to achieve international peace and security, by acceptance of obligations not to resort to war, by the prescription of open, just and honorable relations between nations, by the firm establishment of the understandings of international law as the actual rule of conduct among Governments, and by the maintenance of justice and scrupulous respect for all treaty obligations in the dealings of organized peoples with one another, Agree to this Covenant of the League of Nations.

Article 1.

The original Members of the League of Nations shall be those of the Signatories which are named in the Annex to this Covenant and also such of those other States named in the Annex as shall accede without reservation to this Covenant. Such accession shall be effected by a Declaration deposited with the Secretariat within two months of the coming into force of the Covenant. Notice thereof shall be sent to all other Members of the League.

Any fully self-governing State, Dominion or Colony not named in the Annex may become a Member of the League if its admission is agreed to by two-thirds of the Assembly, provided that it shall give effective guarantees of its sincere intention to observe its international obligations, and shall accept such regulations as may be prescribed by the League in regard to its military, naval and air forces and armaments.

Any Member of the League may, after two years' notice of its intention so to do, withdraw from the League, provided that all its international obligations and all its obligations under this Covenant shall have been fulfilled at the time of its withdrawal.

Article 2.

The action of the League under this Covenant shall be effected through the instrumentality of an Assembly and of a Council, with a permanent Secretariat.

Article 3.

The Assembly shall consist of Representatives of the Members of the League.

The Assembly shall meet at stated intervals and from time to time as occasion may require at the Seat of the League or at such other place as may be decided upon.

The Assembly may deal at its meetings with any matter within the sphere of action of the League or affecting the peace of the world.

At meetings of the Assembly each Member of the League shall have one vote, and may have not more than three Representatives.

Article 4.

The Council shall consist of Representatives of the Principal Allied and Associated Powers, together with Representatives of four other Members of the League. These four Members of the League shall be selected by the Assembly from time to time in its discretion. Until the appointment of the Representatives of the four Members of the League first selected by the Assembly, Representatives of Belgium, Brazil, Spain and Greece shall be members of the Council.

With the approval of the majority of the Assembly, the Council may name additional Members of the League whose Representatives shall always be members of the Council; the Council with like approval may increase the number of Members of the League to be selected by the Assembly for representation on the Council.

The Council shall meet from time to time as occasion may require, and at least once a year, at the Seat of the League, or at such other place as may be decided upon.

The Council may deal at its meetings with any matter within the sphere of action of the League or affecting the peace of the world.

Any Member of the League not represented on the Council shall be invited to send a Representative to sit as a member at any meeting of the Council during the consideration of matters specially affecting the interests of that Member of the League.

At meetings of the Council each Member of the League represented on the Council shall have one vote, and may have not more than one Representative.

Article 5.

Except where otherwise expressly provided in this Covenant or by the terms of the present Treaty, decisions of the League at any meeting of the Assembly or of the Council shall require the agreement of all the Members of the League represented at the meeting.

All matters of procedure at meetings of the Assembly or of the Council, including the appointment of Committees to investigate particular matters, shall be regulated by the Assembly or by the Council and may be decided by a majority of the Members of the League represented at the meeting.

The first meeting of the Assembly and the first meeting of the Council shall be summoned by the President of the United States of America.

Article 6.

The permanent Secretariat shall be established at the Seat of the League. The Secretariat shall comprise a Secretary General and such secretaries and staff as may be required.

The first Secretary General shall be the person named in the Annex; thereafter the Secretary General shall be appointed by the Council with approval of the majority of the Assembly.

The secretaries and staff of the Secretariat shall be appointed by the Secretary General with the approval of the Council.

The Secretary General shall act in that capacity at all meetings of the Assembly and of the Council.

The expenses of the Secretariat shall be borne by the Members of the League in accordance with the apportionment of the expenses of the International Bureau of the Universal Postal Union.

Article 7.

The Seat of the League is established at Geneva.

The Council may at any time decide that the Seat of the League shall be established elsewhere.

All positions under or in connection with the League, including the Secretariat, shall be open equally to men and women.

Representatives of the Members of the League and officials of the League when engaged on the business of the League shall enjoy diplomatic privileges and immunities.

The buildings and other property occupied by the League or its officials or by Representatives attending its meetings shall be inviolable.

Article 8.

The Members of the League recognize that the maintenance of peace requires the reduction of national armaments to the lowest point consistent with national safety and the enforcement by common action of international obligations.

The Council, taking account of the geographical situation and circumstances of each State, shall formulate plans for such reduction for the consideration and action of the several Governments.

Such plans shall be subject to reconsideration and revision at least every ten years.

Article 9.

After these plans shall have been adopted by the several Governments, the limits of armaments therein fixed shall not be exceeded without the concurrence of the Council.

The Members of the League agree that the manufacture by private enterprise of munitions and implements of war is open to grave objections.

The Council shall advise how the evil effects attendant upon such manufacture can be prevented, due regard being had to the necessities of those Members of the League which are not able to manufacture the munitions and implements of war necessary for their safety.

The Members of the League undertake to interchange full and frank information as to the scale of their armaments, their military, naval and air programmes and the condition of such of their industries as are adaptable to war-like purposes.

Article 10.

A permanent Commission shall be constituted to advise the Council on the execution of the provisions of Articles 1 and 8 and on military, naval and air questions generally.

Article 11.

The Members of the League undertake to respect and preserve as against external aggression the territorial integrity and existing political independence of all Members of the League. In case of any such aggression or in case of any threat or danger of such aggression the Council shall advise upon the means by which this obligation shall be fulfilled.

Article 12.

Any war or threat of war, whether immediately affecting any of the Members of the League or not, is hereby declared a matter of concern to the whole League, and the League may be deemed wise and effectual such facts and explanations regarding the dispute and the terms of settlement thereof as the Council may deem appropriate.

If the dispute is not thus settled, the League forthwith summon a meeting of the Council either unanimously or by a majority vote shall make and publish a report containing a statement of the facts of the dispute and the recommendations which are deemed just and proper in regard thereto.

Any Member of the League represented on the Council may make public a statement of the facts of the dispute and of its conclusions regarding the same.

Article 13.

The Members of the League agree that if there should arise between them any dispute likely to lead to a rupture, they will submit the matter either to arbitration or to inquiry by the Council and they agree in no case to resort to war until three months after the award by the arbitrators or the report by the Council.

In any case under this Article the award of the arbitrators shall be made within a reasonable time, and the report of the Council shall be of the parties to the dispute made within six months after the submission of the dispute.

Article 14.

The Members of the League agree that whenever any dispute shall arise between them which they recognize to be suitable for submission to arbitration and which cannot be satisfactorily settled by diplomacy they will submit the whole subject-matter to arbitration.

Disputes as to the interpretation of a treaty, as to any question of international law, as to the existence of any fact which if established would constitute a breach of any international obligation, or as to the extent and nature of the reparation to be made for any such breach, are declared to be among those which are generally suitable for submission to arbitration.

For the consideration of any such dispute the court of arbitration to which the case is referred shall be the Court agreed on by the parties to the dispute or stipulated in any convention existing between them.

The Members of the League agree that they will carry out in full good faith any award that may be rendered, and that they will not resort to war against a Member of the League which complies therewith. In the event of any failure to carry out such an award, the Council shall propose what steps should be taken to give effect thereto.

Article 15.

The Council shall formulate and submit to the Members of the League for adoption plans for the establishment of a Permanent Court of International Justice. The Court shall be competent to hear and determine any dispute of an international character which the parties thereto submit to it. The Court may also give an advisory opinion upon any dispute or question referred to it by the Council or by the Assembly.

Article 16.

Should any Member of the League resort to war in disregard of its covenants under Articles 12, 13 or 15, it shall ipso facto be deemed to have committed an act of war against all other Members of the League, which hereby undertake immediately to subject it to the severance of all trade or financial relations, the prohibition of all intercourse between their nationals and the nationals of the covenant-breaking State, and the prevention of all financial commercial or personal intercourse between the nationals of the covenant-breaking State and the nationals of any other State, whether a Member of the League or not.

It shall be the duty of the Council in such case to recommend to the several Governments concerned what effective military, naval or air force the Members of the League shall severally contribute to the armed forces to be used to protect the covenants of the League.

The Members of the League agree further that they will mutually support one another in the financial and economic measures which are taken under this Article, in order to minimize the loss and inconvenience resulting from the above measures, and that they will mutually support

ALTON PARK, TENN.—"Dr. Pierce's medicines have been used a great deal to my family with very best of results. I had a girl that had chronic bronchitis and I never found anything that could give her relief until I began giving her Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and it gave her more real help than all other medicines put together. I have taken 'Golden Medical Discovery' for stomach trouble and it was excellent for this ailment; it purifies one's blood and seems to act upon, and build up one's whole system in a good, healthy state. 'Golden Medical Discovery' is a splendid family medicine and I take pleasure in recommending it."—Mrs. J. A. BEAN, 1500 Highland Avenue.

Few folks or families now living have not at sometime or other used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the stomach, liver or blood. Over twenty-four million bottles of this tonic and blood remedy have been sold by druggists in this country.

WEST FRANKFORT, KY.—"I can recommend Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets most highly for they have been used for many years past by my own people and by my husband's and later on by myself. I have never known such a mild and effective remedy for sluggish liver and constipation as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets."—Mrs. ADDIE HARROD, No. 908 Polk Grove Street.

These little, sugar-coated pills are composed of Mayapple, leaves of aloe, root of jaip—things that Nature grows in the ground, and are sold by druggists everywhere.

COVENANT

the geographical situation of the territory, its economic conditions and other similar circumstances. Certain communities formerly belonging to the Turkish Empire have reached a stage of development where their existence as independent nations can be provisionally recognized subject to the rendering of administrative advice and assistance by a Mandatory until such time as they are able to stand alone. The wishes of these communities must be a principle consideration in the selection of the Mandatory.

Any Member of the League which has violated any covenant of the League may be declared to be no longer a Member of the League by a vote of the Council concurred in by the Representatives of all the other Members of the League represented thereon.

Article 17.

In the event of a dispute between a Member of the League and a State which is not a Member of the League, or between States not Members of the League the State or States not Members of the League shall be invited to accept the obligations of membership in the League for the purposes of such dispute, upon such conditions as the Council may deem just. If such invitation is accepted, the provisions of Articles 12 to 16 inclusive shall be applied with such modifications as may be deemed necessary by the Council.

Upon such invitation being given the Council shall immediately institute an inquiry into the circumstances of the dispute and recommend such action as may seem best and most effectual in the circumstances.

If a State so invited shall refuse to accept the obligations of membership in the League for the purposes of such dispute, and shall resort to war against a Member of the League, the provisions of Article 16 shall be applicable as against the State taking such action.

If both parties to the dispute when so invited refuse to accept the obligations of membership in the League for the purposes of such dispute, the Council may take such measures and make such recommendations as will prevent hostilities and will result in the settlement of the dispute.

Article 18.

Every treaty or international engagement entered into hereafter by any Member of the League shall be forthwith registered with the Secretariat and shall as soon as possible be published by it. No such treaty or international engagement shall be binding until so registered.

Article 19.

The Assembly may from time to time advise the reconsideration by Members of the League of treaties which have become inapplicable and the consideration of international conditions whose continuance might endanger the peace of the world.

Article 20.

The Members of the League severally agree that this Covenant is accepted as abrogating all obligations or understandings inter se which are consistent with the terms thereof, and solemnly undertake that they will not hereafter enter into any engagements inconsistent with the terms thereof.

In case any Member of the League shall, before becoming a Member of the League, have undertaken any obligations inconsistent with the terms of this Covenant, it shall be the duty of such Member to take immediate steps to procure its release from such obligations.

Article 21.

Nothing in this Covenant shall be deemed to affect the validity of international engagements, such as treaties of arbitration or regional understandings like the Monroe doctrine, for securing the maintenance of peace.

Article 22.

To those colonies and territories which as a consequence of the late war have ceased to be under the sovereignty of the States which formerly governed them and which are inhabited by peoples not yet able to stand by themselves under the strenuous conditions of the modern world, there should be applied the principle that the well-being and development of such peoples form a sacred trust of civilization and that securities for the performance of his trust should be embodied in this Covenant.

The best method of giving practical effect to this principle is that the tutelage of such peoples should be entrusted to advanced nations who by reason of their resources, their experience or their geographical position can best undertake this responsibility, and who are willing to accept it, and that this tutelage should be exercised by them as Mandatories on behalf of the League.

The character of the mandate must differ accordingly to the stage of the development of the people, to encourage and promote the establishment and co-operation of duly authorized voluntary national Red Cross organizations having as purpose the improvement of health, the prevention of disease and the mitigation of suffering throughout the world.

Article 26.

Amendments to this Covenant will take effect when ratified by the Members of the League whose Representatives compose the Council and by a majority of the Members of the League whose Representatives compose the Assembly.

No such amendment shall bind any Member of the League which signifies its dissent therefrom, but in that case it shall cease to be a Member of the League.

IT'S FOOLISH TO SUFFER

When So Many Hartford People Are Pointing the Way Out

You may be brave enough to stand backache or headache or dizziness. But, if, in addition urination is disordered, look out! If you don't try to fix your sick kidneys, you may fall into the clutches of dangerous disease before you know it. But, if you live more carefully and help your kidneys with Doan's Kidney Pills, you can stop the pains you have and avoid future danger as well. Don't experiment—use the remedy Hartford people are publicly endorsing. Read this case:

John T. King, carpenter, Washington St., Hartford, says: "Some time ago I suffered from backache and trouble with my kidneys. I found that Doan's Kidney Pills relieved me and I can recommend them as a good reliable medicine." In this connection, the special necessities of Members of the League. The Council may include as part of the expenses of the Secretariat the expenses of any bureau or commission which is placed under the direction of the League.

Even to the Tiniest Leak

YOU can't afford to let any of that golden cream escape in the milk. If you know where the leak is you are going to stop it. We can show you how the Primrose stops the tiniest leak.

The Primrose Cream Separator skins clean—to the very last drop. It is simplicity itself in operation. The Primrose is the only cream separator which doesn't obstruct the cream outlets in the bowl with a cream screw.

Running quickly over a few of the other high spots—substantial supply can, heavy tinware, close-skimming bowl, highest grade material, simple driving mechanism, all parts oiled by splash from supply in gear case, sanitary frame.

There are several exclusive features whose values are obvious on a demonstration. We want to explain every one, and show how they all tend to save that valuable cream to the last valuable drop.

You are in the dairy business to make money. You need the warm skim milk for feeding. Let the Primrose help you. The size of your herd in no way affects the ratio of profit. The Primrose saves on the gallon—you can figure out your profits.

WOLT TO COX FORMS LANDSLIDE

Kentucky Republican ranks deserted daily by citizens who see the light

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 25.—The swing of the Republicans in Louisville and the State of Kentucky, who cannot abide by the wiggle and wobble of Senator Harding on such a vital moral question as the League of Nations, has assumed the proportions of a landslide. Each day dozens of independent thinking, forward looking citizens announce that they cannot support the Republican ticket any longer.

The majority of them are swayed in this action by the belief that the only hope of the League of Nations is through the Democratic party.

Here are a few prominent Republicans who have recently announced their intention of voting for Cox:

Mrs. Butley Grinstead, daughter-in-law of former Republican Mayor of Louisville, James F. Grinstead.

L. W. Bernheim, life long Republican, and always a heavy contributor to the Republican cause.

Credo T. Harris, novelist and brother-in-law of S. Thurston Ballard, Republican Lieutenant-Governor of Kentucky.

James G. Kirwin, prominent Louisville business man who has always voted Republican.

G. R. Ogden, of Shinnston, W. Va., says: "I have used AVALON FARMS HOG-TONE 56 days and I think it is the best medicine I ever used. I have two pigs 4 months and 3 days old that weigh 360 pounds, one 6 pounds heavier than the other. They are 100 pounds heavier than my neighbor's 2 of the same litter and feed."

This is the experience of a typical user of Hog-Tone. There are hundreds and hundreds of letters on file at the AVALON FARMS Company's office from nearly every state in the Union, all telling of big improvement in hogs and in hog profits through the use of Hog-Tone, the scientifically prepared Hog Conditioner, Fattener and Worm Remover. Hog-Tone is sold on 60 days' Free Trial under an absolute money-back guarantee. Come in the store and tell us how many hogs you have in your herd and we will give you enough Hog-Tone to treat all of them 60 days. You don't have to pay for it unless you are absolutely satisfied.
